Greetings,

As a part of me finishing my Ph.D. I took a brief online course on effective communication. The course is called "Pitch Yourself! Learn to Ignite Curiosity + Inspire Action." If you can look beyond some of the Buddhist philosophy speak about your inner spark, it offers some very helpful tips and insights about telling your story (in the work of TMF).

The course is video based and is broken down into segments that run for a total of an hour and a half. It costs 9.99$ I believe presently. I recommend that you take a look at the course as a means to help you tell our story.

Thank you,

Steven
