Dear All,

At this point, these dates look as good as any, and it does make sense to lead up to Yom HaShoah!

Thanks,
Jan

Dear Steven,

I think that these dates will work wonderfully well at this point. Jan, what do you think?

As for offering the seminars to the community, please do offer it!

If there is anything else that we need to do presently?

All the best,

Steven

Steven and Jan—

That is so lovely, and, of course, we will make a donation to Matzevah. We would love to look at dates in the spring leading up to Yom HaShoah (and beyond). In particular, the dates we would be looking at are:

March 27, 2017

April 3, 2017

April 24, 2017

May 1, 2017

May 8, 2017

Do you think that these dates might work for y'all? Also, would it be okay for us to offer it to the community?

Kara Hoffman is our Education Coordinator and she will be working with us as well to schedule.

Best,

Steven

Dear Rabbi Rau,

Thank you for your response and support as we develop this project. We were not planning to charge anything but would ask for you to consider making a donation to The Matzevah Foundation. This is entirely up to you and your staff.

As far as next steps go, we will begin working on fleshing out the syllabus over the next few weeks. Jan will be going to Poland in June for a few weeks and I will be going to Poland for a couple of months beginning in July (returning in early September). If you would like to meet and discuss the course any further between now and the middle of June, please let us know.

Sincerely,

Steven

Hi Steven and Jan—

This is a very meaningful program and one that we would love to include in our adult education offerings. That being said, would you let us know that cost of the class. We do not charge for the majority of our adult education offerings so we have a limited budget.

Looking forward to hearing back from you.

Steven

Jan and Steven. The person who coordinates adult learning on our staff is Rabbi Steven Rau. My suggestion is for you to share what you are thinking with him via email so he can run it by our adult learning committee to see if it fits in to what they are planning for next year. I am copying Rabbi Rau. Let's start there and then we can all follow up. All my best, Peter.

Dear Peter,

Jan and I met this morning and we are re-grouping and considering next steps concerning the Holocaust seminar that I discussed with you prior to Pesach and my trip to Poland. If you still see this as a viable option for your congregation, we would like to meet with you and/or your adult education staff if possible in order to determine how we might best serve your congregation in teaching this joint Jewish-Christian seminar on the Shoah.

If you have time we would like to set up a meeting with you in the next two weeks or so. Jan will be leaving for a trip to Poland in the middle of June and I will be heading to Michigan at the end of June and then to Poland for two months (July through 4 September).

Please let me know if you have any available time to meet with us over the next few weeks.

L'shalom,

Steven
