

	Five Most Important Things I Value in My Life	Personal Values I Bring to the Matzevah Foundation	Core Values of The Matzevah Foundation
Elaine Brown	1. Commitment to God (belief in him and his provision) 2. Service (loving and serving God and others) 3. Family (loves God and each other) 4. Renewal (spiritual solitude with God) 5. Job (using gifts for God's glory) 6. Joy (from deep sense of belonging to God)	1. Faith (dependence upon God) 2. Service (using spiritual gifts) 3. Administration (organization) 4. Loyal (keeps commitments) 5. Faithful (completes tasks)	1. Belief 2. Love 3. Commitment to God and Christ 4. Doing (remembering, restoring, reconciling) flows from abiding in Christ
Kevin Little	1. Faith (God) 2. Family (wife, parents, sisters, nieces, nephews, etc.) 3. Friends 4. Health (my own and others) 5. Work	1. Charming, friendly, pleasant 2. Cheerful, Fun, Energetic, happy, humor 3. Commitment, dependability, faithful, loyal 4. Flexible, adaptable 5. Encouraging 6. Leadership	1. Adaptability 2. Commitment 3. Community 4. Compassion 5. Grace 6. Humility 7. Leadership 8. Open minded 9. Passion 10. Respect 11. Unity
JoAnn Siegienski	1. God - my faith 2. Family 3. Friends 4. Home 5. Music 6. Job	1. Heart – passion 2. Honesty 3. Open to growth 4. Discernment	1. Ethical 2. Merciful
Rachel McRae	1. Respect - for others, for people to be treated properly 2. Integrity - could include honesty, being responsible, accountable 3. Friendships/relationships 4. The Bible - guideline for all of life 5. Character - how a person conducts themselves	1. Integrity (I do what I say I'll do and do it to the best of my ability) 2. Friendships/relationships 3. Loyalty 4. Administration (attention to detail, thorough)	1. Biblical foundation 2. Respect (Jewish and Polish) 3. Integrity (gains and maintains respect) 4. Keeps word 5. Communication (transparency) 6. Discernment (from the Lord and others) 7. Get confirmation on where the Lord is moving before we move Matzevah in a particular direction

	Five Most Important Things I Value in My Life	Personal Values I Bring to the Matzevah Foundation	Core Values of The Matzevah Foundation
Steven Reece	1. Vision (seeing and understanding God's plan/purpose/possibilities) 2. Integrity (being consistent and true to values) 3. Honesty (truthfulness) 4. Loyalty (maintaining commitments, being faithful) 5. Encouragement 6. Family	1. Vision 2. Leadership 3. Learner 4. Faith (dependence upon God) 5. Ethical/moral convictions 6. Justice (in the sense of acting justly or doing the right thing) 7. Compassion (being merciful) 8. Humility (something that I am learning)	1. Justice (acting justly) 2. Mercy (being compassionate) 3. Humility (being faithful, diligent) 4. Integrity (key moral element combined with deepening trust) 5. Transformational leadership 6. Unity in purpose 7. Collaboration or Teaming 8. Transparency 9. Stewardship (stewards entrusted with what belongs to God) 10. Community (relationships with others)